1. A user can visit the website from homepage to a recipe detail page looking into category pages.

2. A user can directly visit the certain recipe page at first and go to homepage and other categories from that page.

3. A user can subscribe recipes push from the website in every page by clicking the "subscribe" button in navigation bar.